

St. Charles Borromeo First Grade – Summer Reading List

This suggested book list is derived from various websites, book reviews, and teacher favorites. This is only a suggestion of books to read. Summer reading should be fun and meaningful. We encourage you to take your wonderful soon-to-be first grader to the book store and/or library and let them explore!

Students should complete the book activity on the attached sheets. They should complete one for each book that they read. This should be turned in the first day of school.
